Joy of Salvation Church

Dear Man of God,

Greetings in the precious name of our Lord Jesus Christ!

As we step into this New Year, I want to extend my heartfelt wishes for joy, peace, and abundant blessings upon you and your family. Your faithful support in the ministry has been a great encouragement, and I deeply appreciate your generosity and prayers that continue to strengthen the work God has entrusted to us. May this year be filled with new opportunities, divine favor, and the assurance that your partnership is bearing fruit in lives touched by His love!

In December, God opened a remarkable door for us to share the gospel at Siddhi Memorial Hospital, one of the leading district hospitals in Bhaktapur. With special consent, I was blessed to proclaim the good news to more than 30 elderly people in the aged care department. This was a deeply moving experience, especially given how difficult it is to share the gospel in Bhaktapur, where local political leaders strongly defend their traditions and often view Christianity as a threat. Because of this resistance, only a handful of churches exist inside the city, most meeting in believers' own homes since renting or opening a church building is nearly impossible. Although Bhaktapur district has hundreds of churches, nearly all are located on the outskirts, as the municipality itself remains closed to open Christian fellowship. Yet, despite these challenges, God's grace is at work—doors are opening little by little, and His Word is reaching hearts even in places where it once seemed impossible.

I am delighted to share with you that the newly planted church in Kasan is growing wonderfully by God's grace. Just last week, four precious souls came to Christ, accepting Him as their Lord and Savior, and I am sending you some pictures of that joyful moment. It is truly encouraging to see how, gradually, one by one; new people are coming to faith as we continue to share the Word of God and the gospel in our community. Your prayers and support are bearing fruit in lives transformed for His kingdom.

I humbly ask you to join me in prayer for several important matters:

- Please pray that our country will be blessed with a good Prime Minister and his team after the upcoming election in the first week of March, and that political leaders will begin to include Christianity, accept it, and ensure no persecution.
- Kindly pray for the growth of our newly planted church in Kasan, that many more souls will be added to the fellowship.
- On January 24, we have celebrated the 34th Church Day of our mother church, which my mother faithfully started years ago from a small room in our house. Please lift her up in prayer, which God will continue to use her life powerfully so that more and more people may come to Christ through her testimony. Pray also that the Lord will speak to the hearts of those to whom she shares the gospel each and every day, that they may receive His Word with joy and faith.

In His Service,
Pastor Saul Shrestha
