

Dear Prayer Warriors

In season and out of season, we remain committed to proclaiming the Gospel among those who are least reached, believing that no one should live and die without hearing the name of Jesus Christ, for many remain spiritually blinded to the truth of the Gospel, and therefore, we continue to serve faithfully so that the light of Christ may shine into hearts and lives. 2 Corinthians 4:3-4

Last week, one of the professors taught a session on existentialism from a worldview perspective. While the classroom provided an opportunity for intellectual engagement, our ministry extended beyond academic discussions. We sought to bridge the gap between students' minds and their searching hearts by presenting a biblical worldview that speaks meaningfully to life's deepest questions about purpose, identity, truth, and hope. Through these conversations, we pray that many will come to recognize that the answers they seek are ultimately found in Jesus Christ.

Amid ongoing ministry responsibilities, ate Among has successfully completed her doctoral studies at Singapore Bible College. We praise God for His faithfulness throughout this journey and are deeply grateful for the scholarships and financial assistance that made this achievement possible. This milestone is not only a personal accomplishment but also an investment in future ministry, and ministry access equipping us to serve more effectively in teaching, discipleship, and leadership development

We thank God for His continued provision and for your faithful prayers, encouragement, and partnership in the Gospel. Together, we rejoice in what the Lord is doing and look forward to the opportunities He will provide to make Christ known among those who have yet to hear and respond to His saving grace.

1. Pray for Gospel Impact Among Students

Pray that the students we engage with would not only understand different worldviews intellectually but also encounter the truth of Jesus Christ personally. Ask God to open the hearts of those searching for meaning and purpose, and to use our conversations to lead many to faith in Christ.

2. Pray for Wisdom and Fruitful Ministry

Praise God for the completion of Among's doctoral studies and for His provision through scholarships. Pray that this training would equip us for greater effectiveness in ministry, giving us wisdom, discernment, and opportunities to faithfully proclaim the Gospel and disciple others among the least reached.
